

This form must be used when changing the name or status of a representative. It may be an attached representative becoming independent, or vice versa, or a representative attached to a firm becoming attached to a new firm, or ultimately, a corporation name change. By way of this name change, there is transfer of rights, obligations and remuneration between the two parties.

To process such a transaction, a new representative contract is required. Please refer to the contracting checklist regarding the required documents. We will contact you should additional documents be necessary.

Signature of the form indicates that the parties agree with this change.
